

EASTER IN POLAND

An Easter Display

lamb

daffodil

pussy willow

egg

chick

In Poland many people belong to the Roman Catholic Church which is part of the Christian religion.

Easter is a very important celebration. People remember that Jesus died on the cross on Good Friday but came to life again on Easter Sunday.

Easter baskets contain symbols of Easter. On Easter Sunday special food is prepared and eaten.

You can buy palms from the market.

Look how colourful they are!

Palm Sunday is the week before Easter.

On Palm Sunday people take the palms to church.

Jesus is dead for three days.

On Easter Day Jesus says, "I am alive!"

TRADYCJE WIELKANOCNE

The Easter baskets are in the church.

The baskets are brought to be blessed with holy water.

What can you see in the Easter basket?

Can you see the palms again?

A basket of beautiful coloured eggs....

....and these are really special too!

People eat eggs and ham on Easter Sunday.

Do you think this one is too pretty to eat?

Easter Monday is called smingus dyngus.
See what fun they have with water!